THIS HOLIDAY SEASON, REMEMBER.
IT'S NOT OUR JOB TO CONVINCING.
IT'S NOT OUR JOB TO CONVICT.
IT'S NOT OUR JOB TO SAVE.
IT'S OUR JOB TO LOVE.
CONVINCING, CONVICTING AND
SAVING IS THE WORK
OF THE HOLY SPIRIT.

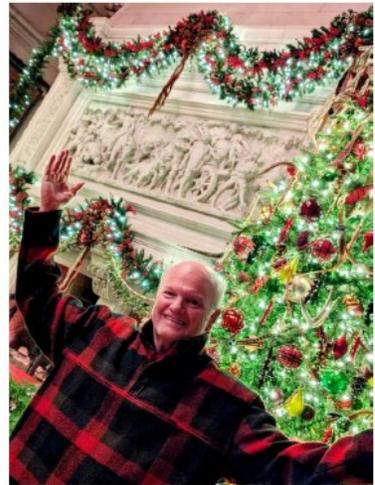

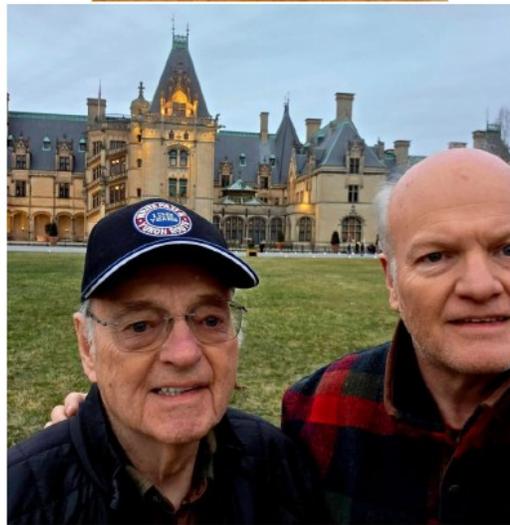

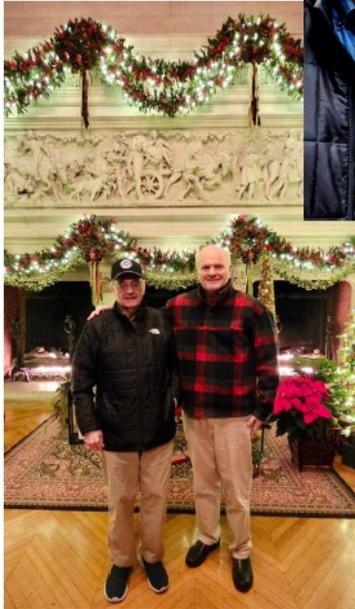

Thank you to all who contributed, shopped and distributed the 30 teen angel items!!

RECIPE FOR A HAPPY NEW YEAR

Take 12 whole months. Clean them thoroughly of all bitterness, hate, and jealousy. Make them just as fresh and clean as possible.

Now, cut them into 28, 30, or 31 different parts, but do not make the whole batch at once. Prepare it one day at a time out of these ingredients.

Mix well into each day one part of the following: faith, patience, courage, and work. Add one part each of: hope, faithfulness, generosity, and kindness. Blend with prayer, meditation, and at least one good deed. Season the whole with a dash of good spirits, sprinkle of fun, a pinch of play, and a cupful of good humor.

Pour all of this into a vessel of love. Cook thoroughly over radiant joy, garnish with a smile, and serve with quietness, unselfishness, and cheerfulness. You're bound to have a

HAPPY NEW YEAR

As Christmas Day unfolds, may Christ's presence fill your home with peace and your heart with joy.

We witness the power of Home every single day at Presbyterian Home for Children. Home is where fear gives way to safety. It's where children can sleep peacefully and mothers can breathe again.

Because of your generosity, families who once had nowhere to turn have found warmth and hope with PHFC. Your support has made it possible for mothers and children to move from crisis to peace and to continue walking a path illuminated by faith and compassion. Thank you!

Something to think about as this year is coming to an end. While I was walking on the beach a few weeks ago, this thought hit me. Life is like walking the beach looking for sea shells, we walk right past the small perfect shells, because we are looking for the big, jaw dropping shells. The larger the shell the less chance it has of being perfect, but we still want the big shells. Just like life, we look over the little Blessings that we take for granted, always looking for those big moments. We all have those BIG moments, but when we look back at our lives, the best parts are always the little perfect memories we made along the way. So slow down and take it all in, enjoy the little things that God puts in your path before they slip away. Just like shells in the tide, they wash away before you can grab them if you're not careful. GOD IS AMAZING, thank you Lord for all the little things.

Next Luncheon will be in February close to Valentine's Day!

The next So Lit Book Club will meet Wednesday, Jan. 14 at Court Street Books where Trey will lead us in our discussion of Walker Percy's "The Moviegoer." Feel free to bring a snack to share, and the bookstore has a coffee shop, if you would like to purchase a beverage. They will also have copies of our next book to purchase as we conclude our meeting! Can't make it? Just let Michelle know. Thank you and Happy Reading!
